(20) members were present, (3) virtually, for a total of (23) members attending the meeting.

The April Meeting Minutes was approved by all members present.

The Treasures Report was approved by all members present.

Birthdays for the month of May will be: Robert Hawks, Peach Trail and James Miller.

Previous member Kent Cale was voted back into the club and Keith Handy was voted in as a new member.

Howard Bass reported that the Board did meet prior this meeting but wanted to wait until Tommy Cheek gets back to discuss the fence.

Old Business

It was reported that the old Generator Shed is in the process of being built and that they are waiting on the metal.

New Business

Adam Miller expressed the serious need for a real French Drain that would run from in front of the Heli and across to the storage building. $1,000.00 was approved to proceed.

Adam Miller also advised the club that someone will need to arrange to have a Bobcat or something similar down at the field when the crushed Concrete arrives for the road.

The 50/50 was won by the Craig Carter who netted $41.00 with $41.00 going to the club.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:18 pm.
