A motion to officially approve the 2026 Board of Directors was made by Ken Kayser and Charlie Lasley. All were in favor.

1. Butch Pendergrass – President
2. John Welcome – VP
3. James Miller – Treasurer
4. Gray Kirby – Secretary

The Board met and further discussed membership caps. For now we will not pursue and wait to see what our membership looks like in the future.

It was the consensus of the club members and board not to move forward with pre-parking sales but we will be chalking in permeant lines in the spring

Paget reported that our Non-Profit Tax Id paperwork has been completed, signed and sent back for final approval by the IRS!

New Business:

1.John Tilly And John Titus are still in research stage for the Heli light poles.

2. John Welcome will Head up the sale of the club generator and money will be deposited in the club account.

3. It was proposed that a $500 limit for spending by CD'S be approved for Plaques, Trophies, and other out of pocket expenses. Chris Baker made the Motion to approve, Charlie Lasley 2nd. All Approved

4. The annual Chicken Stew club social was discussed. Because of schedule conflicts Adam Miller can't do it this year. Butch thought he could do it in December on a Saturday but that is also a scheduling conflict. Please keep an eye out for future emails regarding a Hot Dog and Hamburger club Social and fun fly!

5. We will be having a 2026 Christmas Party at Little Italy. A dirty Santa will be played!!!! $20 to $30 max and we will choose the Order by drawing numbers.
